Marist-Sion College Warragul (Marist-Sion College) is committed to building a school community that features positive and respectful relationships. Within Marist-Sion College, relationships are founded in the gospel values of justice, compassion, reconciliation and kindness. 4.1 COMPLAINTS AND CONCERNS PROCESS FOR STUDENTS

Marist-Sion College acknowledges that issues or concerns can cause stress or worry for students and impact their wellbeing and learning. Marist-Sion College encourages our students to raise issues or concerns as they arise so that we can work together to resolve them.

Students with a concern or complaint can raise them with a trusted adult at school, for example, with your Tutor, Head of House, Deputy Principals, Wellbeing Team members, a Child Safety Champion, and/or the Principal.

This person will take your concern or complaint seriously and will explain to you what steps we can take to try to resolve the issue and support you.

You can also ask to have another trusted adult present as a support person when discussing your concern or you can ask your parent, guardian, carer or another trusted adult outside of the school, to talk to us about the issue instead.

Other ways you can raise a concern or complaint with us include:

- talking to a Student Leader (College, Colour or House Captains and/or a Student Representative Council – SRC member) about your concern and any suggestions you have for resolving it
- sending an email to srccaptains@mscw.vic.edu.au or via the 'Contact the SRC' link on the learning management system, SIMON.

Further information and resources to support students to raise issues or concerns are available at:

- Report Racism Hotline (call 1800 722 476) – this hotline enables students to report concerns relating to racism or religious discrimination

4.2 COMPLAINTS AND CONCERNS PROCESS FOR PARENTS, GUARDIANS, CARERS AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Preparation for raising a concern or complaint

Marist-Sion College encourages parents, guardians, carers or other members of the College community who may wish to submit a concern or complaint to:

- carefully consider the issues you would like to discuss
- remember you may not have all the facts relating to the issues that you want to raise
- think about how the matter could be resolved
- be informed by checking the policies and guidelines set by DOSCEL and Marist-Sion College (see the “Related Policies and Procedures” section below).

When raising concerns or complaints, parents, guardians, carers and community members are expected to adhere to the College Parent, Guardian and Carer Code of Conduct and are reminded of the expectation to communicate and respond in a respectful way, including using respectful language.

Support person

You are welcome to have a support person to assist you in raising a complaint or concern with our College. Please advise us if you wish to have a support person to assist you, and provide their name, contact details, and their relationship to you.

Raising a concern

Marist-Sion College is always happy to discuss with parents, guardians, carers and community members any concerns that they may have.

Concerns in the first instance should be directed to your child's subject teacher or Tutor. Where possible, College staff will work with you to ensure that your concerns are appropriately addressed.

Making a complaint

Where concerns cannot be resolved in this way, parents, guardians, carers or community members may wish to make a formal complaint to the Deputy Principal - Student Learning Culture and Growth or Deputy Principal - Professional Culture and Growth.

If you would like to make a formal complaint, in most cases and depending on the nature of the complaint raised, our school will first seek to understand the issues and will then convene a resolution meeting with the aim of resolving the complaint together. The following process will apply:

1. Complaint received: Please either email, telephone or arrange a meeting through the front office with the Deputy Principal - Student Learning Culture and Growth, Deputy Principal – Professional Culture and Growth or Principal, to outline your complaint so that we can fully understand what the issues are. We can discuss your complaint in a way that is convenient for you, whether in writing, in person, via video conference or over the phone.
2. Information gathering: Depending on the issues raised in the complaint, the Principal or Deputy Principals may need to gather further information to properly understand the situation. This process may also involve speaking to others to obtain details about the situation or the concerns raised.
3. Response: Where possible, a resolution meeting will be arranged with a Deputy Principal or Principal to discuss the complaint with the objective of reaching a resolution satisfactory for all parties. If after the resolution meeting we are unable to resolve the complaint together, we will work with you to produce a written summary of the complaint in the event you would like to take further action. In some circumstances, the Principal may determine that a resolution meeting would not be appropriate. In this situation, a response to the complaint will be provided in writing.
4. Timelines: Marist-Sion College will acknowledge receipt of your complaint as soon as possible (usually within two school days) and will seek to resolve complaints in a timely manner. Depending on the complexity of the complaint, Marist-Sion College may need some time to gather enough information to fully understand the circumstances of your complaint. We will endeavour to complete any necessary information gathering and hold a resolution meeting where appropriate within 10 school days of the complaint being raised. In situations where further time is required, Marist-Sion College will consult with you and discuss any interim solutions to the dispute that can be put in place.

Unacceptable and unreasonable complainant conduct

The College places high value and priority on maintaining a safe and respectful working environment for our College staff. We regard certain behaviours as harmful and unacceptable insofar as they compromise the safety and professional wellbeing of our College staff. These behaviours include, but are not limited to:

- shouting or swearing, either in person or on the telephone
- physical or verbal intimidation
- aggressive hand gestures writing rude, defamatory, aggressive or abusive comments to/about a staff member (including via email or social media)
- use of language which would be considered racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory on religious or gender grounds
- damage or violation of possessions/property.

When a complainant behaves in such unacceptable ways, the principal or a senior member of staff will seek to resolve the situation through discussion and/or mediation.

The College considers behaviour of a complainant to be unreasonable when:

- it is clearly and significantly outside the expectations of cooperation, courtesy and respect
- it calls for staff resources and time unjustified by the nature or significance of the complaint
- an action or complaint is brought without merit, often to cause annoyance to another person
- it is oriented towards conflict.

Unreasonable complainant conduct (including vexatious complaints) will be managed in accordance with the DOSCEL Complaints and Grievances Management Policy.

Resolution

Where appropriate, Marist-Sion College may seek to resolve a complaint by:

- an apology or expression of regret
- a change of decision
- a change of policy, procedure or practice
- offering the opportunity for student counselling or other support
- other actions consistent with College values that are intended to support the student, parent, guardian, carer and school relationship, engagement, and participation in the College community.

In some circumstances, Marist-Sion College may also ask you to attend a meeting with an independent third party or participate in a mediation with an accredited mediator to assist in the resolution of the dispute.

Escalation

If you are not satisfied that your complaint has been resolved by the College, or if your complaint is about the principal and you do not want to raise it directly with them, then the complaint should be referred to the DOSCEL Secretariat.

Marist-Sion College may also refer a complaint to the DOSCEL Secretariat if we believe that it is unlikely that your complaint can be resolved via our complaint-handling process.

For more information about DOSCEL's complaints process, including the role of the DOSCEL Secretariat, please see the DOSCEL Complaints and Grievances Management Policy.

Record keeping and other requirements

To meet DOSCEL and legal requirements, Marist-Sion College must keep written records of:

- All complaints received, both written and verbal, and the actions taken to resolve them.
- Complaints relating to the Child Information Sharing Scheme (CISS) and Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme (FVISS) and Family Violence Multi-Agency Risk Assessment and Management Framework (MARAM), to meet regulatory requirements.
